

Happy Winter!

It is so busy here at the North Pole. Mrs. Claus had me on a diet all year long, so I can't wait to eat all those cookies on Christmas Eve!

What's new this year? Rudolph has a new nose buffer, you should see how shiny it is now! Donner has new shoes so no sliding into chimneys this year and Vixen has a new Collar with the latest tracking system so I won't get lost in the jungles of Africa anymore. It's going to be a much easier flight this Christmas Eve!

I noticed that you made the nice list this year. I was so happy to see this! Be sure to do your best to stay on it and I will be sure to stop by your house this Christmas Eve! See you then!
