A collection of 18 food flags arranged in 9 rows and 2 columns. Each row consists of two flags. The flags are decorated with various themes: pink bows, bees, Winnie the Pooh honey pots, and flowers. The background patterns include yellow and white checkered, blue and white checkered, and yellow and white striped. Each flag has a central white space for writing and a dotted line indicating where to fold over a skewer or toothpick.

Two vertical strips of food flags. The left strip has a yellow and white checkered background and features two honey pots with the word 'Pooh' written on them. The right strip has a yellow and white striped background and also features two honey pots with the word 'Pooh' written on them. Both strips have a central white space for writing and a dotted line indicating where to fold over a skewer or toothpick.
