

Merry Christmas!

It is so busy here at the North Pole. Rudolph is getting his nose extra polished, Dasher is practicing running in his new Nike Turbo Running Shoes, and Dancer is learning how to do a triple leap over the biggest roof tops. It's busy busy busy!

I took a look at the naughty and nice list and I was so happy to see you make the nice list this year. Keep up the good work and I will be sure to visit you on Christmas Eve!

I will see you soon!
